

Art of India

A wanderINDIA drawing and colouring book

Suhita Shirodkar
Suhag Shirodkar

ISBN	9781935677772
Publisher	Mapin Publishing
Binding	Paperback / softback
Territory	USA & Canada
Size	9.35 in x 10.54 in
Pages	36 Pages
Price	$11.95

- This delightful coloring book introduces young readers to the art of India, found everywhere from monuments and textiles, to sidewalks, vehicles, movies, and objects of everyday use!

This delightful coloring book introduces young readers to the art of India, which can be found everywhere from monuments and textiles, to sidewalks, vehicles, movies, and objects of everyday use.

With 34 attractive illustrations, the book takes the reader through a broad spectrum of visual arts, from seals of the Indus valley civilization, embroidery, folk and performing arts, murals, monuments, mehendi, and movies, to objects of everyday use. This excellent book will ensure ample inspiration for curious young minds (and some older ones too!).

•This delightful coloring book introduces young readers to the art of India, found everywhere from monuments and textiles, to sidewalks, vehicles, movies, and objects of everyday use!

This delightful coloring book introduces young readers to the art of India, which can be found everywhere from monuments and textiles, to sidewalks, vehicles, movies, and objects of everyday use.

With 34 attractive illustrations, the book takes the reader through a broad spectrum of visual arts, from seals of the Indus valley civilization, embroidery, folk and performing arts, murals, monuments, mehendi, and movies, to objects of everyday use. This excellent book will ensure ample inspiration for curious young minds (and some older ones too!).

Writer and ceramic artist Suhag Shirodkar lives in Goa and helps manage her family's mango orchard in the Konkan. She is also the author of Captured in Miniature (Mapin), which introduces children to Mughal history through paintings of the time. Illustrator Suhita Shirodkar grew up in Mumbai. She enjoys blogging and sketching in urban settings.