Andrea Modica works with sensual love as her base aligned with a darkness which is pervasive, so much so that it can color your dreams. Modica portrays small moments of stillness, experienced richly. Sensuous without being sentimental, the images are printed with luscious detail. As We Wait was curated by renowned photographer Larry Fink.

Andrea Modica was born in New York City and lives in Philadelphia, where she works as a photographer and teaches at Drexel University. She is a Guggenheim Fellow, a Fulbright Scholar and the recipient of a Knight Award. Her photographs are part of the permanent collections of the Museum of Modern Art, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Whitney Museum of American Art and the Bibliothèque Nationale.
