- Close up photographs of cars held together by tape, plastic and glue that take on qualities of abstract art

These colorful close-ups of cars held together by tape and string show the best (or worst) in Auto DIY and elevate the broken Bentleys and bashed bonnets into abstract art.

Born in Milan in 1987, photographer Ronni Campana specializes in photographing the world's minute imperfections. By concentrating on details in his surrounding environment and framing contrasting color and shapes he uncovers an abstract beauty in seemingly mundane objects. With the use of subtle humor and a bright flash he draws our attention to the wonderful flaws found in everyday life.
