- Barcelona's most beautiful interiors gathered in a stylish and inspiring book
- Carefully selected by Carolina Amell, and written by Gala Mora, a journalist for AD Spain
- Ideal for lovers of interior design, architecture and the city of Barcelona

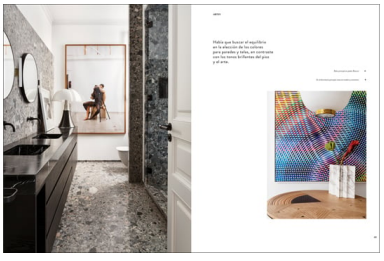

Interior design in Barcelona, an important Mediterranean metropolis and a city with a rich history, draws influences from many different styles. The interiors featured here — notable for their airy sense of space and tiled floors — are cool in the summer but remain cozy and inviting. This book takes you behind the elegant facades, where timeless charm is created by the use of wood, warm colors and fabrics. Barcelona Interiors focuses on the most exclusive and unique homes that represent the authentic Barcelona way of living.

Carolina Amell is an experienced book packager, specializing in illustrated nonfiction books, with over 20 published titles. Gala Mora is a freelance journalist for AD Spain.
