

9781851499205

ACC Art Books

Hardback

USA & Canada

7.68 in x 9.45 in

144 Pages

101 color, 10 b&w

$49.95

- The story of pioneering modernist designer-makers Phylis Barron and Dorothy Larcher
- Explores how Barron and Larcher built a hand-printed textile business that counted Coco Chanel and the Duke of Westminster among its clients
- Includes historic and contemporary illustrations, and text contributions from interior designer Kit Kemp and design writer Alan Powers

