- Beautifully photographed interiors

Pointed Leaf Press is proud to introduce Beauty All Around, a new book by the extraordinary designer Kendall Wilkinson. Wilkinson is a joyful creator, taking her clients' dreams and transforming them into beautiful homes. As one of the most sought-after designers on the West Coast, her interiors are luxuriously playful yet always deeply personal. Inspired by generations of strong women, Wilkinson's family history helped to form the aesthetic principles she holds today. Her new book invites the reader into Wilkinson's world, where she is the master of dualities: traditional and contemporary, textured and smooth, shape and color, all combining into a singular body of work. This book reflects Wilkinson's uniquely collaborative approach, where the character of the house reflects its occupants' own passions and interests. With rich illustrations of impressive penthouses and stunning family compounds,Beauty All Around exhibits the pinnacle of luxury and holistic, subtle refinement.

Kendall Wilkinson fashions together spaces that elicit an emotional response. Wilkinson has been widely celebrated for her artful interpretations of her discerning clients' visions. It was through the lens of aesthetic individuality that she established the San Francisco-based Kendall Wilkinson Design in 1992. This is the first monograph of her work.
