This updated volume of the successful Best Designed Wellness Hotel series features a selection of outstanding aesthetic and beautiful places all over Europe. The book secludes the reader into urban retreats in the centres of pulsating cities such as Paris and London as well as to remote resorts in the calmness of the Alps and on the Mediterranean coasts. All of the selected properties are standing out for their exceptional service and offer their guests a relaxing environment. Each single resort is unique and developed its own identity correspondant to the large diversity of European culture. For aesthetes who appreciate something special this book features not only an attractive spectrum of wellness activities, but also the finest architecture and design.
