- Must-see places for anyone seeking creative inspiration

Discover Britain's most intriguing art. From the prismatic beauty of Charleston House in West Firle to the meditative natural forms at the Barbara Hepworth Sculpture Garden in St Ives, these are the must-see places for anyone seeking creative inspiration. Whether you're marveling at masterpieces in the Ashmolean Museum, the serene artist studios of Henry Moore, or exploring Jupiter Artland's open-air artworks, each destination offers and entirely unique experience and a new way to explore Britain's rich artistic heritage.
