- This book celebrates the impressive range of public and residential building projects taken on by four architects based in the Nyon region

Since 2006, the four Nyon-based architects Laurent Gaille, Cyril Lecoultre, Julien Grisel and Philipe Gloor have produced a number of impressive public and residential buildings. These include a multipurpose building for the Gland commune, which is integrated into the heterogeneous industrial zone of the city, while still boasting a striking and unique structure. This book presents the highlights of their ouevre.

Text in English and German.
