- Award winning photographer with exhibitions in London, Munich, Sydney and Yangon
- Evocative images capturing day-to-day life in Burma and images rarely seen by the western traveler

German photographer Birgit Nieser traveled across Burma on timber trucks and motorbikes capturing a way of life that is fast disappearing. Her stunning black and white images capture the essence and heart of this breathtaking country.

Birgit Nieser is a German photographer who divides her time between Germany and Australia. She has been visiting Burma since 1981.
