- One of the most important sculptors of the Art Deco era, Demêtre Chiparus (1886-1947) was a Romanian sculptor who lived and worked in Paris, France
- This book is a stunning monograph covering his work as both a sculptor and a painter

Over 23 years ago the first publication of Chiparus: Master of Art Deco brought this artist into the public eye. His name, lost in records and catalogues, was rejuvenated by Alberto Shayo's rediscovery of his works, effectively bringing artist and oeuvre back to life. This book dwells on the sources and inspiration of the Art Deco movement, with particular emphasis on sculptures created by Demêtre Chiparus. However, Chiparus considered himself a painter above a sculptor. In this latest version of the book, many unpublished pictures come to light as well as newly discovered oils and 'sanguines', confirming his aptitude in both fields. Also available by Alberto Shayo: Roland Paris: The Art Deco Jester King ISBN 9781851498239
