- Focusing on the state of Texas, this journal explores the state's rich architectural history as well as contemporary examples of classical design

The Classicist is an annual journal dedicated to the classical tradition in architecture and the allied arts. Focused on the state of Texas, the Classicist No. 19 explores the state's rich architectural history as well as contemporary examples of classical design through professional and student portfolios as well as academic articles authored by leaders within the field. Contributors include architectural historian Stephen Fox; Anna Nau of Ford, Powell & Carson Architects; Tara Dudley of the University of Texas at Austin School of Architecture; Kenneth Hafertepe of Baylor University; and architectural author James Wright Steely; alongside submissions to the professional and academic portfolio.

Stephen Fox is an architectural historian and a Fellow of the Anchorage Foundation of Texas. He is a lecturer in architecture at Rice University and the University of Houston. Fox is the author of The Architecture of Birdsall P. Briscoe (2022), the AIA Houston Architectural Guide (2012), and The Country Houses of John F. Staub (2007). He received an Arthur Ross Award from the Institute of Classical Architecture & Art and a John F. Staub Award from the ICAA's Texas Chapter in 2011.
