TITLE INFORMATION
Tel: +1 212 645 1111
Email: ussales@accartbooks.com
Web: https://www.accartbooks.com/us

Dining in Style

Between the Traditional and the Contemporary

Claudia Pianetti Della Stufa

ISBN	9788874616671
Publisher	Mandragora
Binding	Hardback
Territory	USA & Canada
Size	9.45 in x 11.02 in
Pages	160 Pages
Illustrations	271 color
Price	$40.00

- Showcases refined collections of table settings used in the private residences of the most eminent Tuscan families
- Featuring classical, contemporary and country chic arrangements

The volume takes the form of a refined collection of table settings used in the private residences of the most eminent Tuscan families. The narration complemented by images takes readers through a dazzling, multi-colored world composed of precious pieces of porcelain, splendid silver objects and transparent crystals, in which the traditional and classical blend with design elements and modern tastes. What gives unity to the entire collection is undisputed taste and elegance.

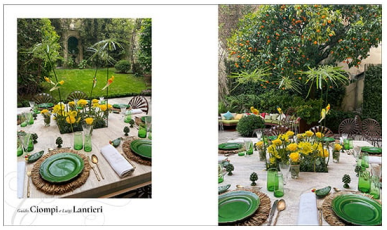

Author Claudia Pianetti Della Stufa is not only a sophisticated interpreter of mise en place but also a true enthusiast of the aesthetics of refined table settings in all their nuances. Her knowledgeable gaze accompanies readers through classical, contemporary and country chic arrangements.

Text in English and Italian.

Claudia Pianetti Della Stufa lives in Florence. Having always taken an interest in floral compositions, she is vice president of the Garden Club of Florence and founder of the annual Camelia Exhibition. Passionate about dining table arrangements, she creates and improvises settings for exclusive events.

Published 29th Jul 2025