- High-quality reproduction of John Constable's finest prints, a summation of his career

The suite of mezzo tints that John Constable made as a summation of his whole career. Working with the printmaker David Lucas he spent years and a small fortune bringing these to perfection; they are some of the finest mezzo tints of the nineteenth century, passionate, lyrical and dramatic.

John Constable, England's best-loved landscape painter, spent much of his final years overseeing the production of the suite of mezzo tints known as English Landscape, which is in many ways the capstone of his career.
