- A tribute to a leading design brand: the book highlights the trajectory and vision of Gilles & Boissier, now an essential signature in contemporary design
- A dive into a singular creative universe: through words and images, it invites readers to discover how the brand blends architecture, decoration and art to shape unique spaces
- Craftsmanship and French elegance: the book celebrates the quality of materials, the artisans' know-how and the refined aesthetic that characterizes its creations
- A source of inspiration: offering professionals and enthusiasts ideas and reflections to fuel their own projects or enrich their design culture
- A carefully produced edition: conceived as a beautiful object, providing reading pleasure and an attractive visual support for anyone interested in lifestyle and interior architecture

Since 2020, Gilles & Boissier have affirmed their status as a lifestyle brand. Formed by Patrick Gilles, a devotee of noble materials, and Dorothée Boissier, passionate about art and scenography, the duo creates a dialogue of opposites that fuels their creativity. They design prestigious hotels—The Lana in Dubai for the Dorchester Collection—and have ongoing projects for Mandarin Oriental in Rome and Four Seasons in Majorca. Faithful partners of Moncler, they reinvent the brand's boutiques in London, Rome and St. Moritz: metallic arches, checkerboard marble and curated paths with artworks offer immersive experiences. At the same time, they produce collections of furniture and objects that combine blown glass, braided ropes and raw stones, reflecting their focus on craftsmanship. This book will trace their recent evolution and complete universe, balancing contemporary luxury with artisanal poetry.
