- Presents a collection of art jewelry from renowned Estonian jewelry artist Kadri Mälgu

Under the ambiguous term HUNT (English: the hunt; Estonian: the wolf), Kadri Mälgu unites her collection of contemporary art jewelry. As a lone wolf, the Estonian artist and teacher compiled the pieces in her eternal hunt for beauty, mystery and creativity.

Since jewelry is designed to be worn, Mälgu's fellow artists are not only immortalized in these works; they also pose in portraits alongside their favorite pieces. The jewelry is thus brought to life on the bodies of the collector's friends and companions.

Text in English and Estonian.
