- A celebration of the wonderful history and achievements of the Cholas

Chola Migrations reproduces, in an accordion format, the large 6.75 feet high by 72.5 feet long mural done by Krishen Khanna in pencil. It is a celebration of the wonderful history and achievements of the Cholas of southern India during, roughly, the tenth to the fourteenth centuries. It represents the religion-centered culture they built and enriched in their own lands along the Coromandel coast, their conquests on the Indian sub-continent and of Sri Lanka, and their bold ventures across the Indian Ocean to trade in luxurious goods with the peoples they found further east.
