- Showcases outstanding lighting designs by design office Licht Kunst Licht
- Includes seventeen international award-winning projects
- Lighting Designer of the year for 2015

The office of Licht Kunst Licht AG was founded in 1991 by Andreas Schulz, simultaneously at two locations in Bonn and Berlin. Today, the field of work of the office's twenty six employees covers office and administration buildings, museums and cultural buildings, representative buildings, government projects, transport infrastructure, shopping centres, hotels and restaurants, outdoor projects and private construction projects.

The seventeen projects in this book show the total range of the firm's works, illustrating, amongst others, the Städel Museum in Frankfurt am Main, the ThyssenKrupp Quartier in Essen or the New Gallery in Kassel.

Text in English and German.
