Mediterranean coastal style has exerted an unparalleled influence on interiors and architecture throughout the world. Whether the iconic cobalt and white of the Greek Islands, the golden-age glamour of the French Riviera or the contemporary barefoot chic of Ibiza, the Mediterranean remains the undisputed benchmark for coastal living.

From the islands of Capri and Ibiza to the coast of Morocco and the Levant, Mediterranean House takes readers on a stunning photographic journey through the region's most beautiful and stylish coastal homes, told through interviews with leading interior designers and architects. Explore the legendary Tangier retreat of Yves St Laurent, the clifftop houses of the Amalfi and the Modernist villas of the Balearics.

With over 250 large-format color images in a beautiful cloth-bound edition, Mediterranean House is the canonical survey of the most stylish residences on the world's most seductive sea.
