For over fifteen years, world-renowned Swiss master florist Nicole von Boletzky has been one of the most celebrated trendsetters within the international florist guild. Her creations cause a sensation far beyond the borders of her country, and for years now, her method of combining perfectly executed floral craft with unmistakable originality is generally considered epoch-making. In floristry, she is regarded as the ultimate source of inspiration, thus it comes as no surprise that her exhibitions draw thousands of visitors. This is her tenth book and certainly the most personal she has produced to date. In an impressive passage through the seasons, she reveals the creative possibilities they hold for her. Large pictures alternate with concise statements corresponding to each design. Text in English and Dutch. Also available:
