- An overview of the socially conscious work created by the Berlin-based artistic duo Various & Gould
- Includes behind-the-scene photographs, bilingual essays, and an interview with the artists done specifically for this book

From multi-colored patchwork identities from collaged faces, via dot-by-dot murals or wildly patterned paper impressions of monuments to fragmented smartphones as gravure plates – the two find new, specific forms of expression in each of their series of works. The love of paper cannot be overlooked and the first book itself is long overdue. Just in time for Various & Gould's anniversary exhibition in Berlin's Urban Spree Gallery, this monograph presents the breadth of their work, deepened by essays by selected authors.
