- The world's first and only Polaroid calendar
- Handmade in Germany since 2012
- Uncensored nude photography from worldwide Polaroid artists
- Limited Edition only
- Comes with a censor sticker sheet – for covering the really hot parts
- High-quality lacquer finish on every page creating a true polaroid feeling
- Each calendar page features an analog instant-photo in original size, a personal little story as well as information about the photographer and the used film

For everyone who wants more: For the fifth time we publish the PHOTODARIUM PRIVATE parallel to the classic one. This tear-off calendar reveals uncensored instant images with an artistic approach to nudity. Day after day a new erotic, nude or cheeky instant-picture is uncovered.

On the front of each calendar page there is an analog instant-photo in original size, finished with high-quality lacquer finish creating a true polaroid feeling. On the back is a little text to the emergence of a picture and information about the photographer and the film used.

A modern and young view on eroticism beyond pornographic clichés – from photographers and individuals all around the world. Emancipated & honest. The private edition has a sticker sheet for personal censorship, is limited and a very special piece of art!

Therefore the PHOTODARIUM (formerly POLADARIUM) is a treasure and an eyecatcher for desk, window sill, cake buffet, parcel shelf, shop windows, bed stand ... and of course the perfect Christmas gift for lovers of analog photography!
