This monograph devoted to Pablo Picasso naturally finds its place in the catalog of Cercle d'Art, a publishing house historically linked to the artist. Through a selection of around 60 major works, the book traces the key stages of his journey at the heart of the twentieth century, from his early periods and Cubism to seminal masterpieces such as Les Demoiselles d'Avignon and Guernica. Conceived as a true visual biography, this monograph offers a clear, rigorous, and accessible reading of a major artistic career, designed to provide lasting support for bookstores and their readers.

As an influential figure in the museum world, Cécile Debray is a French museum curator, art historian, and exhibition curator, widely recognized as a leading specialist in modern and contemporary painting. Former director of the Musée de l'Orangerie, she has served as president of the Musée national Picasso-Paris since 2021. Throughout her career, she has worked with numerous major French art institutions, including the Centre Pompidou, the Réunion des Musées Nationaux, and the Musée d'Art Moderne de la Ville de Paris. A distinguished expert on the work of Wassily Kandinsky, Robert Delaunay, and Pablo Picasso, she has also curated several major international exhibitions. She contributes regularly to numerous books and exhibition catalogs.
