Ryan Korban is one of the youngest designers to be featured on the prestigious Architectural Digest AD100 list and to receive an International Property Award for his work. With a growing Instagram following of over 100,000, Korban connects with both seasoned design aficionados and a new generation of enthusiasts. After graduating from The New School in New York, Korban pursued a career in interior design. Despite lacking formal training, he developed a signature style that blends timeless luxury, old-world charm, and a contemporary edge. His spaces captivate with their allure and innovation, offering a modern reinterpretation of traditional design. Widely regarded as a transformative figure in the design industry, Korban is celebrated for his fusion of classic and contemporary aesthetics. His portfolio includes collaborations with top fashion brands such as Balenciaga and Alexander Wang, as well as high-profile clients like James Franco, Jessica Stam, and Kanye West.
As the founder of Korban Studio, he has led a range of notable projects—from luxury hotels and flagship stores to exquisite private residences. His work has been featured in leading publications including Architectural Digest, Vogue, and Elle Decor. Ryan Korban's innovative approach and distinctive vision have redefined modern interior design. Whether creating spaces for elite clients or globally recognized brands, his work consistently exudes sophistication and boldness. The design world eagerly awaits his next creative endeavor. This monograph showcases Ryan Korban's favorite recent interior and design projects.
