- A compilation of stunning images illustrating the cultural diversity and landscapes of Rajasthan
- Goes beyond the usual, more traditional images of Rajasthan published in numerous books
- From one of India's greatest photographers - this is his life's work on the subject
- Features numerous aerial images taken from hot air balloon rides

With unique photographs taken from a hot air balloon, this is a medley of aerial view images showcasing the cultural diversity of Rajasthan; social norms, decorations, prayers and rituals, and the beautiful landscapes of Rajasthan. Each picture tells a story which captures an emotion which goes unnoticed in the real world. This book is a series of tales woven around Rajasthan and photographed by an award winning running photographer; offering much more than just deserts and architecture.

One of India's biggest names in the genre of wildlife photography, Rajesh Bedi has worked towards portraying and conserving wildlife. He also shoots other subjects in his effort to document Indian heritage. Rajesh was the cinematographer of Child Prostitutes; for a Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, which was awarded the 'Emmy'.
