- Congolese fiction and memoir writers, and everyday voices revisit the photographic archives of the colonial Congo
- With contributions from celebrated authors such as Sinzo Aanza, Jean Bofane and Annie Lulu, e.a.
- Based upon the extensive research of the colonial Congo's photographic history by Dr. Sandrine Colard
- Short-listed in the Photography Catalog of the Year category at the Paris Photo-Aperture PhotoBook Awards 2023

Recaptioning Congo places the colonial Congo's photography history in new perspectives. Six writers and everyday Congolese urban voices take an African-centered look at imperial archival images and provide them with creative, contemporary and/or literary 'captions'. The book, linked to an exhibition in the photography museum FOMU Antwerp, is based upon the extensive research of the photographic history of colonial Congo (1885 – 1960), conducted by Dr. Sandrine Colard. It contains a wealth of revealing images that highlight the relationship between past and present, Africa and Europe and Belgium and Congo.

Text in English, French and Dutch.
