Discover one of Germany's most prestigious private art collections in this richly illustrated volume published to accompany the major exhibition at Palazzo Ducale, Genoa. Featuring more than 140 masterpieces, the book offers an exceptional survey of European art from the 19th century to the present day. From the great Impressionist masters, including Renoir, Monet and Cézanne, to the pioneers of modern and contemporary art, the collection brings together works by Goya, Corot, Bonnard, Matisse, Léger, Picasso, Sam Francis, Sean Scully, Daniel Richter and Katharina Grosse.

Tracing the evolution of artistic expression from representation to abstraction, the volume explores two centuries of creativity, collecting, and cultural history. Richly illustrated and accompanied by scholarly essays, it provides readers with a unique opportunity to experience the breadth and quality of the renowned Scharf Collection.

An essential publication for art lovers, collectors, museum visitors, and anyone interested in the history of modern and contemporary European art.
