- The most complete overview of Rik Vermeersch's works

The unique selection of almost 300 paintings and drawings collected in The Realism of It shows the evolution of artist Rik Vermeersch and unveils an amazing coherence throughout his work. His earlier gestural paintings later make room for more objective work, the so-called 'digital paintings', nudes in particular. With texts by Paul Depondt and Matthijs Van Dijk.

Paul Depondt is a critic, journalist and essayist. He writes about art, literature and cultural history in De Volkskrant and the art magazine (h)art. Matthijs Van Dijk is professor in Applied Design at TU Delft and the founder of Reframing Studio. Rik Vermeersch is a drawer, painter and sculptor.
