- A curated selection of the best surf art from around the world by over 30 contemporary artists
- Captures the unique joys of surf life in art filled with sun, sand, and sky
- Written by Veerle Helsen, author of the bestselling travel guide Surf & Stay

Bright sun, blue sea, churning waves, shifting sand: these and other elements of surf life are featured here in work by 30 contemporary surf artists from around the world. In addition to the text are interviews with the artists, which gives a deeper understanding and insight into the transformation of their surf experience into art. Curated and written by surfing journalist Veerle Helsen, author of the bestselling travel guide Surf & Stay, this unique collection of paintings, watercolors, graphics, and digital artworks capture the joy, beauty, and energy of this sport and lifestyle.

Veerle Helsen is a lifestyle and architecture journalist, as well as a pioneer in surfing and camper traveling.
