- Discover over 100 playful environments all united by their originality, visual appeal and power to help children unleash their creativity and adventurous spirit

This photographic exploration of the world's most imaginative and surprising playscapes spans artist-designed play sculptures, picturesque soft play spaces and wildly creative conceptual playgrounds, from Copenhagen to Canberra, via Bangkok and Beijing. Discover over 100 playful environments – some recently installed, others currently serving their third generation of children, some private and many more public, but all united by their originality, visual appeal and power to help children unleash their creativity and adventurous spirit.

Emmy Watts is a London-based travel writer. She is the author of eight titles in the Opinionated Guide series, including Free London, Eco London and Kids London.
