

The Art of Reggae Covers

Bernd Jonkmanns
Oliver Seltmann

ISBN	9783949070778
Publisher	Seltmann Publishers
Binding	Calendar
Territory	USA & Canada
Size	4.5 in x 6.25 in
Pages	365 Pages
Illustrations	365 color
Price	$28.00

- The world's first tear-off calendar features 365 vinyl covers from both well-known and obscure musicians across all genres, offering a diverse collection of classics and hidden gems
- Daily Music Inspiration: Enjoy daily doses of music inspiration and graphic delight as you tear off each page to reveal a new vinyl cover
- Each page includes the names of the cover photographers, illustrators, and art directors, acknowledging their contributions to the visual artistry of the album covers
- Perpetual tear-off calendar. With cardboard back stand

This daily tear-off calendar presents 365 iconic reggae covers that reflect the diversity and spirit of reggae culture. From legends like Bob Marley, Peter Tosh and Jimmy Cliff to small indie pressings straight from Jamaica, this daily tear-off calendar presents a visual journey through the history and diversity of reggae culture.

The colorful designs and powerful images of the record covers tell of freedom, resistance and joie de vivre. A must-have for all fans of Jamaican music, vinyl lovers and culture enthusiasts!