Presenting the album covers of the 365 most legendary soundtrack classics in one tear-off calendar.

Vinyl records and record stores are currently experiencing a revival. The artistically designed covers of the past decades are the subject of renewed interest and present us with an inspiring way of combining real music and design history.

For this perpetual tear-off calendar, we have selected the best movie soundtrack covers from the past five decades, and have included information on the artists, designers, and producers for each album. An absolute must-have for all movie fans and soundtrack lovers.

Bonus! With the printed Spotify Codes, every album can be listened to immediately and anywhere.
