

The East End In Colour 1960-1980

Photographs by David Granick

ISBN	9781910566312
Publisher	Hoxton Mini Press
Binding	Hardback
Territory	USA & Canada
Size	6.48 in x 7.92 in
Pages	144 Pages
Price	$22.95

- Previously unpublished color photographs of London's East End showing a time before great change

When a local photographer was invited to examine 1,000s of David Granick's color slides in early 2017, he knew he'd seen something special. These images capture the post-war streets of Stepney, Whitechapel, Spitalfields and beyond in the warm hues of Kodachrome film at a time when black and white photography was the norm. Acquired by Tower Hamlets Local History Library & Archives in the early 1980s and preserved there safely since, these photographs show an East London on the cusp of social change.

- Previously unpublished color photographs of London's East End showing a time before great change

When a local photographer was invited to examine 1,000s of David Granick's color slides in early 2017, he knew he'd seen something special. These images capture the post-war streets of Stepney, Whitechapel, Spitalfields and beyond in the warm hues of Kodachrome film at a time when black and white photography was the norm. Acquired by Tower Hamlets Local History Library & Archives in the early 1980s and preserved there safely since, these photographs show an East London on the cusp of social change.

David Granick (1912-1980) was a photographer who lived in the East End his whole life. His color slides laid untouched until 2017 when a local photographer discovered them.