

The Wolfpack Years

20 years of top cycling and winning

Geert Vandebon
Frederik Backelandt

ISBN	9789401486514
Publisher	Lannoo Publishers
Binding	Hardback
Territory	USA & Canada
Size	10.24 in x 12.6 in
Pages	600 Pages
Illustrations	450 color, 50 b&w
Price	$40.00

- The best images from the past 20 years of the Belgian cycling phenomenon, Quick-Step (aka Wolfpack)
- Take a look behind the scenes of Patrick Lefevere's award-winning cycling team
- Includes in-depth interviews with key players on the team

Quick-Step Alpha Vinyl was founded in 2003. Twenty years later, the team consists of 31 talented cyclists from 10 different countries. Under the leadership of CEO Patrick Lefevere, the team became one of the most successful ones in cycling history. In 2010, Czech businessman Zdenek Bakala joined the squad. They have won more than 800 UCI races, including 20 Monuments, more than 50 national titles, 6 world titles on the road, 6 world titles in the individual time trial, 4 world titles team time trial, 2 World Cups, 2 European titles and an Olympic title.

This book is an overview of the most exciting highlights of 20 years of the Wolfpack, with fantastic photos from the archive and interviews with the key players.

Geert Vandebon is a race expert, Tour of Flanders fanatic, storyteller and music maker. He worked for more than 20 years in the organization and expansion of de Ronde (Tour of Flanders), is co-founder of the Centrum RVV in Oudenaarde, wrote and published various sports books. Frederik Backelandt started out as a sports journalist at Het Nieuwsblad and now heads Grinta! Publications. He also wrote several cycling books. He does not only display his knowledge about cycling on paper; he also races himself. He has won the World Cycling Championship for journalists several times and is addicted to cycling in the mountains.