- Binst Architects reveals their iconic standard work
- Reference work on 50 years of Binst Architects
- Technical and visual tour de force of 1250 pages
- Radically multidisciplinary: about architecture, but also interior, art integration, sustainability, design, ...

The renowned Belgian architectural firm BINST ARCHITECTS celebrates 50 years of history with UNTITLED, a major conceptual and analytical book that offers readers an insight into their multidisciplinary oeuvre. It offers a transparent look at BINST ARCHITECTS' renewed approach to creativity, individuality and expertise, as well as heralding a leap of innovation within the firm. The 1250 (!) page book consists of 8 complementary themes that together form the barcode against which 150 of the firm's own projects are measured. From urban planning, architecture and interior design over product development to art integration. UNTITLED is a reference work, a glimpse of the future and an iconic object that both in design and finish deepens the book as an artistic medium.

Binst Architects is a renowned Belgian architectural firm based in Antwerp and led by Luc Binst.
